COMPLAINT

Plaintiff Round Rock Research, LLC (“Round Rock Research”), for its Complaint against Defendants ASUSTeK Computer Inc. (“ASUSTeK”) and ASUS Computer International, Inc. (“ACI”) (collectively, “ASUS”) hereby alleges as follows:

The Parties

1. Plaintiff Round Rock Research is a Delaware limited liability company with its principal place of business at Mount Kisco, New York 10549.

2. Defendant ASUSTeK is a company organized and existing under the laws of Taiwan, Republic of China with its principal place of business at Nr. 15 Li-Te Road, Peitou Taipei, 112, Taiwan.

3. Defendant ACI is a wholly-owned subsidiary of ASUSTeK and a California corporation with its principal place of business at 800 Corporate Way, Fremont, California 94539. ACI has appointed Godwin Yan at 800 Corporate Way, Fremont, California 94539, as its agent for service of process.

Nature of the Action

4. This is a civil action for the infringement of United States Patent Nos. 5,255,109 (“the ’109 Patent”) (attached as Exhibit A); 5,787,174 (“the ’174 Patent”) (attached as Exhibit B); 5,938,764 (“the ’764 Patent”) (attached as Exhibit C); 5,991,843 (“the ’843 Patent”) (attached as Exhibit D); 6,002,613 (“the ’613 Patent”) (attached as Exhibit E); 7,101,727 (“the ’727 Patent”) (attached as Exhibit F); 7,138,823 (“the ’823 Patent”) (attached as Exhibit G); 7,285,979 (“the ’979 Patent”) (attached as Exhibit H); and 7,389,369 (“the ’369 Patent”) (attached as Exhibit I) (collectively, “the Patents-in-Suit”) under the Patent Laws of the United States 35 U.S.C. § 1 et seq.

Jurisdiction and Venue

5. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338(a) because this action arises under the patent laws of the United States, including 35 U.S.C. § 271 et seq.

6. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendants because, among other things, Defendants have committed, aided, abetted, contributed to, and/or participated in the commission of patent infringement in this judicial district and elsewhere that led to foreseeable harm and injury to Round Rock Research.

7. This Court also has personal jurisdiction over Defendants because, among other things, Defendants have established minimum contacts within the forum such that the exercise of jurisdiction over Defendants will not offend traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice. Moreover, Defendants have placed products that practice the claimed inventions of the Patents-in-Suit into the stream of commerce with the reasonable expectation and/or knowledge that purchasers and users of such products were located within this judicial district. And Defendants sold, advertised, marketed, and distributed in this judicial district products that practice the claimed inventions of the Patents-in-Suit.

8. In addition, Defendants knowingly induced, and continue to knowingly induce, infringement of the Patents-in-Suit within this District by making, using, offering for sale, and selling infringing products, as well as by contracting with others to use, market, sell, and offer to sell infringing products, all with knowledge of the Patents-in-Suit and their claims; with knowledge that its customers will use, market, sell, and offer to sell the infringing products in this District and elsewhere in the United States; and with the knowledge and intent to encourage and facilitate infringing sales and use of the products by others within this District and the United States by creating and disseminating promotional and marketing materials, instructional materials and product manuals, and technical materials related to the infringing products.

9. Moreover, Defendants knowingly contributed to the infringement of the Patents-in-Suit by others in this District, and continue to contribute to infringement of the Patents-in-Suit by others in this District, by selling or offering to sell components of infringing products in this District, which components constitute a material part of the inventions of the Patents-in-Suit; knowing of the Patents-in-Suit and their claims; knowing those components to be especially made or especially adapted for use to infringe the Patents-in-Suit; and knowing that those components are not staple articles or commodities of commerce suitable for substantial non-infringing use.

10. Venue is proper in this judicial district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391 and 1400(b).

The Patents-In-Suit

11. On October 19, 1993, the '109 Patent, titled "Heat Dissipating LCD Display," was duly and legally issued by the United States Patent and Trademark Office. Round Rock Research is the assignee of all rights, title, and interest in the '109 Patent, and it possesses all rights to sue and recover for any current or past infringement of the '109 Patent.

12. On July 28, 1998, the '174 Patent, titled "Remote Identification Of Integrated Circuit," was duly and legally issued by the United States Patent and Trademark Office. Round

Rock Research is the assignee of all rights, title, and interest in the '174 Patent, and it possesses all rights to sue and recover for any current or past infringement of the '174 Patent.

13. On August 17, 1999, the '764 Patent, titled "Apparatus For Improved Storage Of Computer System Configuration Information," was duly and legally issued by the United States Patent and Trademark Office. Round Rock Research is the assignee of all rights, title, and interest in the '764 Patent, and it possesses all rights to sue and recover for any current or past infringement of the '764 Patent.

14. On November 23, 1999, the '843 Patent, titled "Method And System For Concurrent Computer Transaction Processing," was duly and legally issued by the United States Patent and Trademark Office. Round Rock Research is the assignee of all rights, title, and interest in the '843 Patent, and it possesses all rights to sue and recover for any current or past infringement of the '843 Patent.

15. On December 14, 1999, the '613 Patent, titled "Data Communication For Memory," was duly and legally issued by the United States Patent and Trademark Office. Round Rock Research is the assignee of all rights, title, and interest in the '613 Patent, and it possesses all rights to sue and recover for any current or past infringement of the '613 Patent.

16. On September 5, 2006, the '727 Patent, titled "Passivation Planarization" was duly and legally issued by the United States Patent and Trademark Office. Round Rock Research is the assignee of all rights, title, and interest in the '727 Patent, and it possesses all rights to sue and recover for any current or past infringement of the '727 Patent.

17. On November 21, 2006, the '823 Patent, titled "Apparatus And Method For Independent Control Of On-Die Termination For Output Buffers Of A Memory Device," was duly and legally issued by the United States Patent and Trademark Office. Round Rock Research is the assignee of all rights, title, and interest in the '823 Patent, and it possesses all rights to sue and recover for any current or past infringement of the '823 Patent.

18. On October 23, 2007, the '979 Patent, titled "Apparatus And Method For Independent Control Of On-Die Termination For Output Buffers Of A Memory Device," was duly and legally issued by the United States Patent and Trademark Office. Round Rock Research is the assignee of all rights, title, and interest in the '979 Patent, and it possesses all rights to sue and recover for any current or past infringement of the '979 Patent.

19. On June 17, 2008, the '369 Patent, titled "Active Termination Control," was duly and legally issued by the United States Patent and Trademark Office. Round Rock Research is the assignee of all rights, title, and interest in the '369 Patent, and it possesses all rights to sue and recover for any current or past infringement of the '369 Patent.

Count I

Infringement of U.S. Patent No. 5,255,109

20. Paragraphs 1-19 are incorporated by reference as if fully restated herein.

21. ASUS has infringed, and continues to infringe, the '109 Patent under 35 U.S.C. § 271, either literally and/or under the doctrine of equivalents, by making, using, offering for sale, selling, and/or importing into the United States products that contain a heat dissipating Liquid Crystal Display (LCD) as claimed in the '109 Patent ("109 Infringing Products"), including at least the VW246H LCD monitor.

22. ASUS has also indirectly infringed, and continues to indirectly infringe, the '109 Patent. ASUS has had knowledge of the '109 Patent and its infringement since at least March 30, 2011 through a letter sent by Round Rock Research concerning that infringement. ASUS's customers directly infringe the '109 Patent by making, using, selling, and/or offering for sale '109 Infringing Products in the United States. ASUS actively, knowingly, and intentionally induced, and continues to actively, knowingly, and intentionally induce, infringement of the '109 Patent by making, using, offering for sale, and selling '109 Infringing Products, as well as by contracting with others to use, market, sell, and offer to sell '109 Infringing Products, all with knowledge of the '109 Patent and its claims; with knowledge that its customers will use, market, sell, and offer to sell '109 Infringing Products; and with the knowledge and intent to encourage and facilitate those infringing sales and uses of '109 Infringing Products through the creation and dissemination of promotional and marketing materials, instructional materials, product manuals, and technical materials related to '109 Infringing Products.

23. ASUS has also contributed to the infringement by others (e.g., ASUS's customers and the users of '109 Infringing Products), and continues to contribute to infringement by others, by selling, offering to sell, or importing '109 Infringing Products into the United States, knowing that those systems constitute a material part of the inventions of the '109 Patent, knowing those systems to be especially made or adapted to infringe the '109 Patent, and knowing that those systems are not staple articles or commodities of commerce suitable for substantial non-infringing use.

24. ASUS directly and/or indirectly has infringed, and continues to infringe, at least claims 1, 4, 12, 15, 21, and 23 of the '109 Patent.

25. Round Rock Research has been and continues to be damaged by ASUS's infringement of the '109 Patent.

26. ASUS has willfully infringed, and continues to willfully infringe, the '109 Patent despite having received notice of its infringement from Round Rock Research.

Count II

Infringement of U.S. Patent No. 5,787,174

27. Paragraphs 1-26 are incorporated by reference as if fully restated herein.

28. ASUS has infringed, and continues to infringe, the '174 Patent under 35 U.S.C. § 271, either literally and/or under the doctrine of equivalents by making, using, offering for sale, selling, and/or importing into the United States products with Bluetooth and/or 802.11 wireless communication functionality ("174 Infringing Products"), including at least products in the following lines: Eee Slate tablet computers; CM desktop computers; Eee "All-in-One" personal computers; Bamboo, U, UL, F, N, G, K, and B series notebook computers; Internet Radio series internet radios; and Skype Phone AiGuru S2 internet phones.

29. ASUS has also indirectly infringed, and continues to indirectly infringe, the '174 Patent. ASUS has had knowledge of the '174 Patent and its infringement since at least March 30, 2011 through a letter sent by Round Rock Research concerning that infringement. ASUS's customers directly infringe the '174 Patent by making, using, selling, and/or offering for sale '174 Infringing Products in the United States. ASUS actively, knowingly, and intentionally induced, and continues to actively, knowingly, and intentionally induce, infringement of the '174 Patent by making, using, offering for sale, and selling '174 Infringing Products, as well as by contracting with others to use, market, sell, and offer to sell '174 Infringing Products, all with knowledge of the '174 Patent and its claims; with knowledge that its customers will use, market, sell, and offer to sell '174 Infringing Products; and with the knowledge and intent to encourage and facilitate infringing sales and uses of '174 Infringing Products through the creation and dissemination of promotional and marketing materials, instructional materials, product manuals, and technical materials related to '174 Infringing Products.

30. ASUS has also contributed to the infringement by others (e.g., ASUS's customers and the users of '174 Infringing Products), and continues to contribute to infringement by others, by selling, offering to sell, or importing '174 Infringing Products in the United States, knowing that those systems constitute a material part of the inventions of the '174 Patent, knowing those systems to be especially made or adapted to infringe the '174 Patent, and knowing that those systems are not staple articles or commodities of commerce suitable for substantial non-infringing use.

31. ASUS directly and/or indirectly has infringed, and continues to infringe, at least claims 1, 2, and 15 of the '174 Patent.

32. Round Rock Research has been and continues to be damaged by ASUS's infringement of the '174 Patent.

33. ASUS has willfully infringed, and continues to willfully infringe, the '174 Patent despite having received notice of its infringement from Round Rock Research.

Count III

Infringement of U.S. Patent No. 5,938,764

34. Paragraphs 1-33 are incorporated by reference as if fully restated herein.

35. ASUS has infringed, and continues to infringe, the '764 Patent under 35 U.S.C. § 271, either literally and/or under the doctrine of equivalents by making, using, offering for sale, selling, and/or importing into the United States products that store basic input/output system (BIOS) instructions in non-volatile memory as claimed in the '764 Patent ("'764 Infringing Products"), including at least products in the N series of notebook computers.

36. ASUS has also indirectly infringed, and continues to indirectly infringe, the '764 Patent. ASUS has had knowledge of the '764 Patent and its infringement since at least September 19, 2011 through discussions with Round Rock Research concerning that infringement. ASUS's customers directly infringe the '764 Patent by making, using, selling, and/or offering for sale '764 Infringing Products in the United States. ASUS actively, knowingly, and intentionally induced, and continues to actively, knowingly, and intentionally induce, infringement of the '764 Patent by making, using, offering for sale, and selling '764 Infringing Products, as well as by contracting with others to use, market, sell, and offer to sell those products, all with knowledge of the '764 Patent and its claims; with knowledge that its customers will use, market, sell, and offer to sell '764 Infringing Products; and with the knowledge and intent to encourage and facilitate those infringing sales and uses of '764 Infringing Products through the creation and dissemination of promotional and marketing materials, instructional materials, product manuals, and technical materials related to '764 Infringing Products.

37. ASUS has also contributed to the infringement by others (e.g., ASUS's customers and the users of '764 Infringing Products), and continues to contribute to infringement by others, by selling, offering to sell, or importing '764 Infringing Products in the United States, knowing that those systems constitute a material part of the inventions of the '764 Patent, knowing those systems to be especially made or adapted to infringe the '764 Patent, and knowing that those systems are not staple articles or commodities of commerce suitable for substantial non-infringing use.

38. ASUS directly and/or indirectly has infringed, and continues to infringe, at least claims 1, 2, 7, and 8 of the '764 Patent.

39. Round Rock Research has been and continues to be damaged by ASUS's infringement of the '764 Patent.

40. ASUS has willfully infringed, and continues to willfully infringe, the '764 Patent despite having received notice of its infringement from Round Rock Research.

Count IV

Infringement of U.S. Patent No. 5,991,843

41. Paragraphs 1-40 are incorporated by reference as if fully restated herein.

42. ASUS has infringed, and continues to infringe, the '843 Patent under 35 U.S.C. § 271, either literally and/or under the doctrine of equivalents by making, using, offering for sale, selling, and/or importing into the United States infringing products with Universal Serial Bus (USB) 3.0 functionality ("843 Infringing Products"), including at least computer systems in the following lines: All-in-One PC computers and N series notebook computers.

43. ASUS has also indirectly infringed, and continues to indirectly infringe, the '843 Patent. ASUS has had knowledge of the '843 Patent and its infringement since at least July 15, 2011 through correspondence from Round Rock Research concerning that infringement. ASUS's customers directly infringe the '843 Patent by making, using, selling, and/or offering for sale '843 Infringing Products in the United States. ASUS actively, knowingly, and intentionally induced, and continues to actively, knowingly, and intentionally induce, infringement of the '843 Patent by making, using, offering for sale, and selling '843 Infringing Products, as well as by contracting with others to use, market, sell, and offer to sell '843 Infringing Products, all with knowledge of the '843 Patent and its claims; with knowledge that its customers will use, market, sell, and offer to sell '843 Infringing Products; and with the knowledge and intent to encourage and facilitate those infringing sales and uses of '843 Infringing Products through the creation and dissemination of promotional and marketing materials, instructional materials, product manuals, and technical materials related to the '843 Infringing Products.

44. ASUS has also contributed to the infringement by others (e.g., ASUS's customers and the users of the '843 Infringing Products), and continues to contribute to infringement by others, by selling, offering to sell, or importing '843 Infringing Products in the United States, knowing that those systems constitute a material part of the inventions of the '843 Patent, knowing those systems to be especially made or adapted to infringe the '843 Patent, and knowing that those systems are not staple articles or commodities of commerce suitable for substantial non-infringing use.

45. ASUS directly and/or indirectly has infringed, and continues to infringe, at least claims 1, 2, 17, and 18 of the '843 Patent.

46. Round Rock Research has been and continues to be damaged by ASUS's infringement of the '843 Patent.

47. ASUS has willfully infringed, and continues to willfully infringe, the '843 Patent despite having received notice of its infringement from Round Rock Research.

Count V

Infringement of U.S. Patent No. 6,002,613

48. Paragraphs 1-47 are incorporated by reference as if fully restated herein.

49. ASUS has infringed, and continues to infringe, the '613 Patent under 35 U.S.C. § 271, either literally and/or under the doctrine of equivalents, directly and/or indirectly, by making, using, offering for sale, selling, and/or importing into the United States products containing Double Data Rate (DDR) memory (including at least mDDR, LPDDR, LPDDR2, DDR, DDR2, and DDR3 memory) (collectively, "'613 Infringing Products"), including at least products from the following lines: Essentio and Eee desktop computers; Eee tablets; U, N, F, M, X, G, K, A, F, K, and B notebook computers; T and R servers; and AMD and Intel series motherboards.

50. ASUS has also indirectly infringed, and continues to indirectly infringe, the '613 Patent. ASUS has had knowledge of the '613 Patent and its infringement since at least March 30, 2011 through a letter sent by Round Rock Research concerning that infringement. ASUS's customers directly infringe the '613 Patent by making, using, selling, and/or offering for sale '613 Infringing Products in the United States. ASUS actively, knowingly, and intentionally induced, and continues to actively, knowingly, and intentionally induce, infringement of the '613 Patent by making, using, offering for sale, and selling '613 Infringing Products, as well as by contracting with others to use, market, sell, and offer to sell '613 Infringing Products, all with knowledge of the '613 Patent and its claims; with knowledge that its customers will use, market, sell, and offer to sell '613 Infringing Products; and with the knowledge and intent to encourage and facilitate those infringing sales and uses of '613 Infringing Products through the creation and dissemination of promotional and marketing materials, instructional materials, product manuals, and technical materials related to '613 Infringing Products.

51. ASUS has also contributed to the infringement by others (e.g., ASUS's customers and the users of '613 Infringing Products), and continues to contribute to infringement by others, by selling, offering to sell, or importing '613 Infringing Products containing DDR memory in the United States, knowing those systems to constitute a material part of the inventions of the '613 Patent, knowing those systems to be especially made or adapted to infringe the '613 Patent, and knowing that those systems are not staple articles or commodities of commerce suitable for substantial non-infringing use.

52. ASUS directly and/or indirectly has infringed, and continues to infringe, at least claims 16, 17, 19, and 21 of the '613 Patent.

53. Round Rock Research has been and continues to be damaged by ASUS's infringement of the '613 Patent.

54. ASUS has willfully infringed, and continues to willfully infringe, the '613 Patent despite having received notice of its infringement from Round Rock Research.

Count VI

Infringement of U.S. Patent No. 7,101,727

55. Paragraphs 1-__ are incorporated by reference as if fully restated herein.

56. ASUS has infringed, and continues to infringe, the '727 Patent under 35 U.S.C. § 271, either literally and/or under the doctrine of equivalents, directly and/or indirectly, by making, using, offering for sale, selling, and/or importing into the United States products implementing and/or containing complementary metal-oxide-semiconductor (CMOS) image sensors ("'727 Infringing Products"), including at least products in the K52 line of notebook computers.

57. ASUS has also indirectly infringed, and continues to indirectly infringe, the '727 Patent. ASUS has had knowledge of the '727 Patent and its infringement since at least June 9, 2011 through a presentation made by Round Rock Research concerning that infringement. ASUS's customers directly infringe the '727 Patent by making, using, selling, and/or offering for sale '727 Infringing Products in the United States. ASUS actively, knowingly, and intentionally induced, and continues to actively, knowingly, and intentionally induce, infringement of the '727 Patent by making, using, offering for sale, and selling '727 Infringing Products, as well as by contracting with others to use, market, sell, and offer to sell '727 Infringing Products, all with knowledge of the '727 Patent and its claims; with knowledge that its customers will use, market, sell, and offer to sell '727 Infringing Products; and with the knowledge and intent to encourage and facilitate those infringing sales and uses of '727 Infringing Products through the creation and dissemination of promotional and marketing materials, instructional materials, product manuals, and technical materials related to '727 Infringing Products.

58. ASUS has also contributed to the infringement by others (e.g., ASUS's customers and the users of '727 Infringing Products), and continues to contribute to infringement by others, by selling, offering to sell, or importing '727 Infringing Products in the United States, knowing those systems to constitute a material part of the inventions of the '727 Patent, knowing those systems to be especially made or adapted to infringe the '727 Patent, and knowing that those systems are not staple articles or commodities of commerce suitable for substantial non-infringing use.

59. ASUS directly and/or indirectly has infringed, and continues to infringe, at least claims 1, 2, 3, and 7 of the '727 Patent.

60. Round Rock Research has been and continues to be damaged by ASUS's infringement of the '727 Patent.

61. ASUS has willfully infringed, and continues to willfully infringe, the '727 Patent despite having received notice of its infringement from Round Rock Research.

Count VII

Infringement of U.S. Patent No. 7,138,823

62. Paragraphs 1-61 are incorporated by reference as if fully restated herein.

73. ASUS directly and/or indirectly has infringed, and continues to infringe, at least claims 33, 34, and 36 of the '979 Patent.

74. Round Rock Research has been and continues to be damaged by ASUS's infringement of the '979 Patent.

75. ASUS has willfully infringed, and continues to willfully infringe, the '979 Patent despite having received notice of its infringement from Round Rock Research.

Count IX

Infringement of U.S. Patent No. 7,389,369

76. Paragraphs 1-76 are incorporated by reference as if fully restated herein.

77. ASUS has infringed, and continues to infringe, the '369 Patent under 35 U.S.C. § 271, either literally and/or under the doctrine of equivalents, directly and/or indirectly, by making, using, offering for sale, selling, and/or importing into the United States products containing DDR2 or DDR3 memory ("369 Infringing Products"), including at least products from the following lines: Essentio and Eee desktop computers; Eee tablets; U, N, F, M, X, G, K, A, F, K, and B notebook computers; T and R servers; and AMD and Intel series motherboards.

78. ASUS has also indirectly infringed and continues to indirectly infringe the '369 Patent. ASUS has had knowledge of the '369 Patent and its infringement since at least June 9, 2011 through a presentation made by Round Rock Research concerning that infringement. ASUS's customers directly infringe the '369 Patent by making, using, selling, and/or offering for sale '369 Infringing Products in the United States. ASUS actively, knowingly, and intentionally induced, and continues to actively, knowingly, and intentionally induce, infringement of the '369 Patent by making, using, offering for sale, and selling '369 Infringing Products, as well as by contracting with others to use, market, sell, and offer to sell '369 Infringing Products, all with knowledge of the '369 Patent and its claims; with knowledge that its customers will use, market, sell, and offer to sell '369 Infringing Products; and with the knowledge and intent to encourage and facilitate those infringing sales and uses of '369 Infringing Products through the creation and dissemination of promotional and marketing materials, instructional materials, product manuals, and technical materials related to the '369 Infringing Products.

79. ASUS has also contributed to the infringement by others (e.g., ASUS's customers and the users of the '369 Infringing Products), and continues to contribute to infringement by others, by selling, offering to sell, or importing '369 Infringing Products in the United States, knowing those systems to constitute a material part of the inventions of the '369 Patent, knowing those systems to be especially made or adapted to infringe the '369 Patent, and knowing that those systems are not staple articles or commodities of commerce suitable for substantial non-infringing use.

80. ASUS directly and/or indirectly has infringed, and continues to infringe, at least claims 8, 10, 14, and 16 of the '369 Patent.

81. Round Rock Research has been and continues to be damaged by ASUS's infringement of the '369 Patent.

82. ASUS has willfully infringed, and continues to willfully infringe, the '369 Patent despite having received notice of its infringement from Round Rock Research.

Prayer For Relief

Wherefore, Plaintiff Round Rock Research respectfully requests that this Court enter judgment against Defendants ASUSTeK and ACI as follows:
